EMERGING THEMES IN FINANCIAL REGULATION: FINTECH

19 January 2021

2020 brought disruption on a previously unimagined scale. As we look ahead to 2021, it is clear that with the fall-out from the global pandemic, Brexit, and the headwinds of legal and regulatory change, the coming year will continue to provide challenges - how we respond to these challenges will shape our businesses for many years to come.

This session examined international perspectives on key regulatory developments in the Fintech space, with a focus on hot topics for 2021, whether they be regulatory risks or opportunities arising from changes in the regulatory approach.

The session covered:

- The most significant regulatory related risks facing the sector;
- Opportunities for the sector;
- Q&A.
